Hardship Level

- Some places covered by the itinerary are remote, with limited facilities and amenities; some accommodation would be basic but clean.
- Huge temperature gap between day and night, strong UV rays.
- Possibility of suffering from high altitude sickness.
- Mountainous winding road, at times, bumpy drive, risk of motion sickness.
- Outdoor activities require a certain level of physical fitness and agility, unsuitable for those with restricted movement.

Reminder

- Travel in high elevation and border areas poses uncertainties, including unpredictable weather, road blocked due to landslides or other reasons, political situations, policy changes, and more. Tour itinerary may subject to change in response to various uncertainties, interested tour members should be mentally prepared to accept changes and be understanding.
- To respect local culture and religion, observe modesty in dress code.
- Please do not give money to the children that you meet on the road, as this will groom them to be street beggars. You may consider giving away useful items such as pen, pencil, coloring books etc.
