Day 05 & 06: Sundarbans National Park by Cruise (Full Board)

We drive to Khulna Jail river ghat and board our vessel. We spend the next two days exploring the Sundarbans National Park by specially built cruise boat and smaller country boats. A UNESCO World Heritage Site, the park encompasses the largest block of coastal mangroves on the planet, and the forests are home to a huge range of fauna. As we sail through the waterways passing mudflats and small islands, we search for crocodiles, deer and dolphins as well as watching the many birds who call the mangroves home. We stop on several of the islands to explore the beaches and forests on foot, and if we are extremely lucky, we may catch sight of a tiger or at least spot some fresh paw prints in the soft earth. The boat will anchor each evening, and we will spend the nights on board in twin-sharing cabins. The bathroom and toilet are attached inside all cabins.

Day 07: Return to Dhaka (B)

This morning we set off journey to Dhaka via newly built Padma bridge. En-route visit to Sixty Domed Mosque in Bagerhat, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Back to Dhaka in the evening. Overnight in Dhaka.

Day 08: Departure from Dhaka (B)

Today will have leisure buffet breakfast. Move to airport departure at 11:55am. End tour.
